Pickens County Meals on Wheels Celebrates Its Volunteers with a Luncheon

On Wednesday, November 7th at 12:30 p.m., Pickens County Meals on Wheels will hold an Appreciation Luncheon in honor of its volunteers. The location is Grace United Methodist Church, 309 East Cedar Rock Street in Pickens, where the Meals on Wheels office has been located free of charge for the past 27 years. Palmetto Health Baptist Easley, Cannon Memorial Hospital of Pickens and Little Bistro Restaurant of Liberty, will be cooking up the meal and dessert as well as providing all the paper products and decorating the tables. They are the three food providers for the program that serves a hot noontime meal to seniors in need. This time it's the volunteers' turn to enjoy being served a delicious, hot lunch.

While Pickens County Meals on Wheels has more than 300 volunteers who run 18 daily routes throughout the County, about 100 volunteers are expected during this lunch hour. They will be treated to a fun and inspirational speech by Sam Wyche, who is a former Super Bowl player and coach, local celebrity, and Treasurer and Board Member of Pickens County Meals on Wheels.
